

James Villa Holidays launch 2019 holidays to Santorini

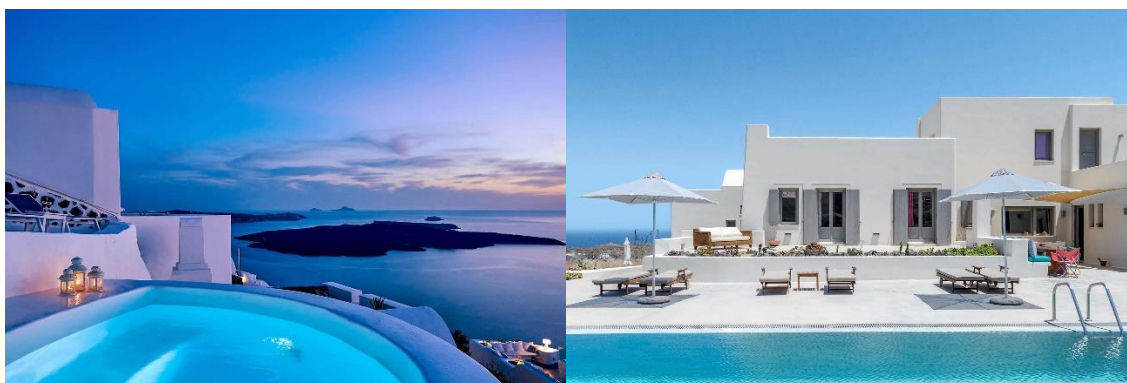

James Villa Holidays have added another new destination to their extensive collection. Santorini is now the eleventh Greek Island offered by the villa holiday specialist and is available to book throughout 2019.

With villas in Firostephani and Akrotiri customers now have the choice of two of the most sought after locations on the island. The Santorini collection of villas offers customers the chance to stay in traditional Greek white-washed properties with the iconic domed ceilings and sweeping views across the island's famous caldera. For families there's the more classic villa style with a large pool for days of relaxation and family fun. James Villas have carefully handpicked the villas so there is something for everyone on the island.

James Villa Holidays have over 2,900 villas in more than 50 destinations worldwide and the specialists continue to grow their portfolio of destinations to meet the demand from holidaymakers.

Head of Overseas Product and Contracting at James Villas, Robert Tipler, commented on the addition: "Its natural and unique beauty, plus those stunning sea views, have made Santorini top of many peoples holiday wish list. We're delighted to be able to offer this iconic island to our customers. With an increasing trend of holidaymakers looking at Greek Island getaways and we're excited to add to the collection and offer even more choice."
