

James Villas adds new villas for 2020

The UK's leading villa holiday specialist adds new villas to its portfolio for 2020 as holidaymakers look ahead to booking next year's big break.

This year additions includes over 30 new properties in the USA's popular Sunshine State as well as brand new builds in Croatia's Dubrovnik Region and bolthole beauties in Mainland Spain and the Algarve.

With a whole host of countryside Classics and Signature standouts to choose from, take a look at some of their new villas for 2020...

Villa Morocco Way, Florida

Furnished to deliver the utmost comfort with six bedrooms, including two king ensuites, this villa has everything needed for families looking to discover the delights of a Florida getaway.

Villa Nautical Dreams, Dubrovnik Region

With captivating sea views pouring through from every angle and the UNESCO Old Town Walls of Dubrovnik only a 10-minute drive away, Villa Nautical Dreams really does live up to its name.

Villa Rosario, Algarve

With a modern, contemporary design both inside and out, located in the heart of the popular Sao Rafael resort, Villa Rosario is the perfect base to discover what the Algarve has to offer.

“It’s a really exciting to see our portfolio grow and develop year on year. Our product specialists work tirelessly to handpick quality villas so customers have something fresh and exciting to choose from when making their next holiday booking. We’ve just crossed over 100 new villas for 2020 and there’s still many more to come!” says Robert Tipler, Head of Product & Contracting.

The villa specialists have over 3000 villas in the collection across 60 destinations and with new properties across the range there's plenty of choice and something for every holiday type.

ENDS

About James Villa Holidays

As the UK’s leading villa holiday company, James Villas has been providing villa holidays for over 35 years. Founded in 1984, and starting with just one villa, they now have 3,000 villas in over 60 destinations. From European destinations such as Spain, Portugal and Greece to further flung destinations including Florida and The Caribbean, there’s a wide range of choice. Also offering flights, car hire and other extras including transfers and airport hotels, they take care of the little things to provide the full package holiday experience.

For reservations and more information please visit www.jamesvillas.co.uk call 0800 074 0311 or email reservations@jamesvillas.co.uk.