

James Villas launch Mykonos as a new destination for 2019

James Villa Holidays has added another new destination to their extensive collection. Mykonos, in the heart of the Cyclades, is now the twelfth Greek Island offered by the villa holiday specialist and is available to book throughout 2019.

With four villas located just a short distance from the island's capital, Mykonos Town, customers have the chance to stay in traditional Cycladic styled properties all of which come with stunning panoramas of the Aegean Sea. With one, two and three bedroom villas now available James Villas have carefully handpicked the villas ideal for both families and couples who are looking to explore Greece's most famous cosmopolitan Island.

Head of Overseas Product and Contracting at James Villas, Robert Tipler, commented on the addition: "It's the destination that is on everybody's wish list. With its natural beauty, picturesque panoramas, as well as being renowned for its lavish lifestyle- Mykonos the place to be. Greek Island getaways are proving to be an increasingly popular choice for holidaymakers and we are delighted to be able to offer Mykonos to our customers."

James Villa Holidays has over 3,000 villas in more than 60 destinations worldwide and the specialists continue to grow their portfolio of destinations to meet the demand from holidaymakers. Mykonos now joins Santorini, Olympus Riviera, Le Marche and Corsica as the latest addition to the new destinations the villa operator has introduced for 2019.
